

To whom it may concern:

I am writing to express my support for maintaining title II designation for ISPs with regards to the determination of net neutrality regulation. I believe it represents an important protection for the general public to a resource that is at risk of manipulation by corporate entities. Therefore, I ask that you preserve the current protections to enable fair market competition for businesses and equal access to information.

Sincerely,

Matthew Ulrickson
Gilbert, AZ